

PRESS RELEASE

ROBERT PRICE TO SPONSOR FOOD FESTIVAL KITCHEN

Robert Price Builders' Merchants have agreed a sponsorship deal with the Abergavenny Food Festival to supply and maintain the festival's demonstration kitchen.

Positioned right at the heart of the festival, in the magnificent market hall dating from 1807, the kitchen stage will be the venue for culinary demonstrations by some of the region's finest chefs, together with the final of the children's cookery competition.

“We are delighted to be working with Abergavenny Food Festival,” explains Emma Parkes, Marketing Manager for Robert Price Builders' Merchants, whose head office has been situated in Abergavenny for over 160 years. “We have watched with pleasure as the festival has grown over the years into a major event, attracting visitors from across the region. We are keen to support such a positive and professional attraction within the town, particularly as it celebrates its tenth anniversary”.

“Robert Price are an obvious partner for the Food Festival, and we are pleased that they have agreed to join us,” explains Festival Communications Manager, Cathy Green. Their high profile kitchen showroom in Park Road attracts many “foodies” to Abergavenny throughout the year. As a business with such a long history in the town, they have very strong links with Abergavenny and it is great to have such good local support”.

This year’s festival takes place over the weekend of 20 and 21 September.
