Robert Price Sponsors The Kymin Dash 2010

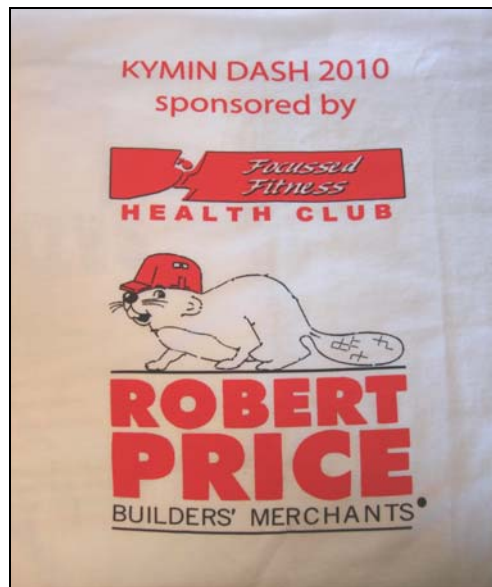

Robert Price Builders' Merchants sponsor the Kymin Dash in Monmouth for the fifth year running.

The Kymin Dash is a race steeped in history and takes place once a year in the small town of Monmouth.

Covering approximately seven miles of mixed terrain, it circles the town and ascends and descends the Kymin. The Kymin is a local viewpoint peaking at 850ft and participants run via forest tracks, field paths and minor roads coming to finish at the town recreation ground.

The race proved to be a success once again with over 150 runners. First place went to Matt Collins who completed this endurance test in just over 37 minutes.

Ends.
