Press Release. For immediate release.

Bron Afon residents are delighted with donation from Robert Price Builders' Merchants

Residents at Sunnybank Court Retirement Housing in Pontypool, are delighted with the new 40" LCD TV in their recently refurbished communal lounge.

The TV has been donated by Robert Price, South Wales' largest independent builders' merchants. Robert Price is an established partner of Bron Afon Community Housing, having supplied a wide range of materials for repair and maintenance work on Bron Afon properties.

Commenting on the newly completed works, Community Volunteer Coordinator, Lukasz Kuziow said: "The refurbishments are absolutely brilliant. The new TV has encouraged Tenants to visit the communal lounge and socialise. It has also contributed to the launch of a coffee morning, attended on a weekly basis by up to ten Tenants.

Tenants also are looking forward to winter evenings during, which they watch their favourite programmes together."

Dave Pattison, public sector coordinator at Robert Price said: "Bron Afon work tirelessly to bring residents' housing up to the latest Welsh quality standards. The kitchens, bathrooms, products and materials supplied Robert Price support Bron Afon's efforts.

"The donation of this TV marks the completion of a scheme of work, which will make a significant difference for the residents of Sunnybank Court."

"Robert Price are committed to providing the highest quality products and service, reinforcing the efforts that Bron Afon are making to overhaul their housing stock."
