Press Release. For immediate release.

Robert Price Builders' Merchants in Bridgend, award local tradesman a £500 Irwin tool kit!

The Bridgend branch of Robert Price Builders' Merchants has presented an Irwin tool kit worth approximately £500 to local tradesman Steve Evans.

The tool kit forms the main prize in a recent series of competitions from Irwin Tools, which saw tradesmen, put their skills to the test at Robert Price branches throughout South Wales.

When awarded the prize, Steve commented: "I am really happy to have won such a comprehensive tool kit; when I was told I had won, I could not believe my luck!"

Branch Manager, Tom Connolly, went on to say: "The Bridgend branch, which is located just off of junction 36 of the M4 in Bryncethin, has a strong base of trade and general public customers. When I heard that a tradesman from my branch had won the main prize, I could not wait to tell him. Steve is a regular customer, so it's nice that staff have the opportunity to congratulate him on his good fortune.

"Staff at the branch are rightfully proud of what Robert Price Bridgend has to offer; we stock a wide range of building and landscaping materials, timber, tools and paint. We also have an excellent paving display, kitchen and bathroom showroom and home design centre.

"Whether you are a tradesman, DIY enthusiast or simply looking for inspiration for your home, I encourage you to call into Robert Price in Bridgend."
