PARTS & LABOUR

Your kitchen is an investment and we understand the importance of protecting that investment.

When you buy CDA, you buy quality and we confidently stand by that quality by providing you with an additional 3 years labour warranty free of charge*, on top of our standard 5 years parts and 2 years labour warranty, when you buy selected CDA ovens.

You get complete peace of mind and we get the satisfaction of knowing you're taken care of. We pride ourselves on our attentive customer service, from our product warranty, to our in-house customer care team right through to our dedicated CDA engineers, serving you, our customer, is very important to us.

Obviously we think our ovens are brilliant because we are passionate about what we do. Every CDA oven, along with all our appliances, are designed using the best materials and tested to stringent quality controls in our on-site testing laboratory in Nottingham, England. If something should go wrong, as unfortunately it sometimes does, our product warranty protects you and your oven, helping to keep your kitchen running.

So what does this mean for you?

Your oven is protected with CDA for 5 years, meaning you have no call out charges. You'll have access to technical support, labour and spares, and a replacement product, if we cannot fix yours. You're also covered for:

- Repairs required to the product as a result of defective materials or components, or manufacturing defects
- Functional mechanical/electrical replacement parts necessary to repair a product
- Costs associated with providing a CDA approved engineer to carry out the repair
